

According to the appeal result record, Abeba Habtewold Yigezu (NAE ID: 000863) registered at the Yekatit 12 Registration Site and submitted an appeal regarding her placement. After the appeal review process, her case was evaluated by the responsible authorities. The record indicates that she was originally associated with the Yekatit 12 registration center and sought reconsideration of her assignment.

Conclusion: The appeal was not successful, and the final decision remained unchanged. As a result, Abeba Habtewold Yigezu was assigned and sent to Debre Markos, which remained her final placement following the appeal review.

While appealing the individual used Forgery documents for the appeal to be taken successfully and this is the first proof the institute found for the allegations of document Forgery which are many more proofs to be released.